

Life Group Questions
(Matthew 24:1-35)

1. Read Matthew 24:1-35 together. What stands out to you from this passage? What questions come to mind? What is confusing or unclear?
2. Have you read prophetic sections of the Bible before? Is it daunting or scary to try and interpret not-so-straight-forward passages of Scripture? Why or why not?
3. Verses 4-35 of Matthew Chapter 24 are dealing with the judgment of Jerusalem in the destruction of the temple. Is the idea of God being just and judging nations hard for you to understand? Why or why not? Why is it healthy to have a balance of God's love and God's justice?
4. In what ways is this passage "all about Jesus"? How does this passage exalt and glorify him?
5. Put yourselves in the disciples shoes. What follow up questions would you have for Jesus?

Life Group Questions
(Matthew 24:1-35)

1. Read Matthew 24:1-35 together. What stands out to you from this passage? What questions come to mind? What is confusing or unclear?
2. Have you read prophetic sections of the Bible before? Is it daunting or scary to try and interpret not-so-straight-forward passages of Scripture? Why or why not?
3. Verses 4-35 of Matthew Chapter 24 are dealing with the judgment of Jerusalem in the destruction of the temple. Is the idea of God being just and judging nations hard for you to understand? Why or why not? Why is it healthy to have a balance of God's love and God's justice?
4. In what ways is this passage "all about Jesus"? How does this passage exalt and glorify him?
5. Put yourselves in the disciples shoes. What follow up questions would you have for Jesus?