The Quebec government will allow us to have 50 persons at a time for the moment. But there are so many restrictions that we decided to wait for Sunday morning services and continue our small groups who can now get together instead of using zoom.

We continue our food distribution for people in need in the Church and in town. We have activities for children. Next Wednesday, we will have a rally using bikes with them.

We write letters to the church daily. And we have our meeting online on Sunday, using other Churches platforms for Praise and Worship.

So things are different but still anointed by our Father.

Thank you for keeping in touch.

God bless and guide your confinement
