And the angel said to her, "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall call his name Jesus. He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever, and of his kingdom there will be no end."

Missionary Corner

Paul and Cathy Unger

It's been over a year since Paul has been to the Solomons to work face-to-face with the Doku translators. He doesn't miss the flights much (and kind of dreads what they're going to be like if and when they resume), but he definitely misses the interaction and advice of his Doku colleagues! With all the drafts we have, there are a lot of things that we can do "on our own" here in Canada, and we are able to get some files back and forth to the Doku translators through our office in the Solomons. So there's no lack of work, and we're thankful for that! But what we do lack is the immediate, face-to-face, back-and-forth-ing to find the best way to convey the meaning of a tricky concept or passage. In the past, sometimes we would work through a difficult verse and move on. Then 15 minutes, half-an-hour later--or even the next day--the translator would say, "About that verse back there... I think I've got something that will work." The distance in time and space that is currently between us doesn't allow for that kind of "percolating" to happen. We would appreciate your prayers that God would give us all extra insight and grace as we work on the translation from a distance. We always value your partnership in this gospel work!
