

Missionary Corner

I had a wonderful week in Mexico with 26 high school seniors and their 9 chaperones. They built three houses and witnessed lives lived very differently from their own in Oregon. We also held outdoor ministry sessions where we interacted with many young people and adults from the local community.

I was particularly blessed to speak with two young single mothers, an aunt named Araceli, and two young boys. I shared the way of salvation with them, focusing on Romans 10:9-10, and we prayed together. It was moving to see Araceli's countenance visibly change as she prayed to receive Jesus.

My next adventure begins this Sunday. I will be leading a group of 84 people in eight vans. Please pray for a smooth border crossing; the MX authorities have become increasingly strict and unpredictable. We trust that God will make a way.

Looking ahead, we have a small family reunion at the end of July. My schedule remains full with another Mexico trip in August, two teaching engagements in September, a wedding to perform and another Mexico trip in October.

Please pray that I would remain sensitive to the Lord's directions and that I would follow where He leads. Please also pray for health and strength and for a Mohs surgery that I am scheduled for. (I have some basal cell carcinoma that needs to be removed.)

Thank you NPMB Church family.

We truly appreciate your involvement in our lives, your prayers and your support. May God continue to presence Himself in your midst and make you a blessing and an encouragement to the FSJ community.

Lots of love,
asher and suzanne
